Far East
SO/HO
Space Evolves.

It began as a historical district in Manhattan, New York City. An architectural landmark defined by handsome Renaissance-style buildings and a population of artistic individuals. Commanding a fine collection of cast-iron architecture with cobbled streets, these vast, unobstructed warehouse-like spaces evolved into SOHO – a world where creative individuals could gather, exchange ideas and bond.

Today it is a hip, avant-garde neighborhood synonymous with world-class art galleries, innovative fashion and an unmistakable bohemian vibe. SOHO is a place where high achievers, creative artists and successful professionals interact and inspire each other. It is this spirit of creative diversity, freedom and convergence that is captured in every Far East SOHO.

A sophisticated, cosmopolitan city bustling with life, commerce and culture, Singapore is fast becoming one of the great cities of the 21st century. In this ever-changing city-state, history and tradition blend seamlessly with technology and vision amidst a constantly transforming landscape. This is your new playground. This is where your SOHO lifestyle begins.
